

Moms2B mission: To improve the health status of historically disadvantaged communities by empowering pregnant women to deliver full-term, healthy babies, and to eliminate disparities in infant mortality. Moms2B addresses the social and clinical drivers of health and inspires future health care providers to serve with empathy.

Free weekly prenatal education program sessions, both in person and virtual

See in-person schedule

See virtual schedule

Who's eligible:

Pregnant women in Franklin County. Dads and other support persons are always welcome.

Join us to:

- Learn how to have a healthy baby and pregnancy.
- Talk with health care professionals.
- Make new friends.

What we offer:

- Incentives for attendance
- Community support
- Connection to a program just for dads

Have questions or need help with transportation to an in-person session?

Call Moms2B at 614-292-1605 or email Moms2B@osumc.edu.

go.osu.edu/moms2B

